HRsoft Named Company of the Year for 2017 by The Technology Headlines Magazine

HRsoft Recognized for its Excellence in the Category of Compensation Management

ORLANDO, Fla (PRWEB) December 20, 2017 -- On Thurs., Dec. 14, HRsoft, leading compensation planning software provider, received the Company of the Year Award for 2017 from The Technology Headlines, a magazine that brings together CIOs, CXOs, and other technology decisions makers to speak on the evolution of technology and industry trends. The company was recognized for revolutionizing compensation management, and is featured in the magazine's December 2017 edition: "Company of the Year - 2017."

"We're honored to be a recipient of the Company of the Year award," said David Kennedy, CEO of HRsoft. "Our growth is in large part due to the fact that HRsoft is now clearly positioned as the best-of-breed provider for compensation management software. Our unique combination of powerful industry leading features and the ability to integrate with HRIS and other third-party software create a tremendous value and ROI for our customers."

While The Technology Headlines' "Company of the Year" issue reviews the key players in each industry, it also sheds light onto how these companies have created a loyal customer-base, sound marketing strategies, and innovative products and services over the years. Among the listed companies, HRsoft was recognized as the key player in the Compensation Management industry. Carlos Chavez, editor-in-chief of The Technology Headlines said, "It was a great pleasure reviewing these companies, as they all had inspiring as well as thought-provoking stories to share." Nicole Anderson, Senior editor at The Technology Headlines further added, "Our editorial team has not only selected the companies that are at the forefront of bringing a change in the industries, but also the entrepreneurs that are committed to adding value to customers."
To acknowledge such companies, entrepreneurs, and their efforts, the editorial team at The Technology Headlines has come out with a list of "Companies of the Year 2017". The editorial team at The Technology Headlines hopes that the proposed list and valuable insights by these industry leaders will help customers achieve their business goals efficiently.
